

New Year, New Start – Editing Task

new Year is a celebration were we welcome in a brand new year! we celebrated teh end of a year on New Year's Eve, which is on 31st December each year the new year beggins on the 1st January at 12:00am

the end ov the year is a time to reflect on the achievements of the last year and lots of people chose to celebrate in different ways

Not all countries celebrate New Year in the same way. Scotland have a different name for New Year – Hogmanay It is tradition for Scottish peepole to visited each other's houses and takes gifts such as food and coal Also, they sing robert Burns' famous poem, Auld Lang Syne.

In denmark, they celebrate New Year's very differently to us. It is customary for Danish people to collect dishes throughout the year and throw them at the front door on New Year's Eve! They believe that the more plates that are broken, the more friends you will have in the coming year sum people like to have a huge party with their family and friends and celebrate with fireworks alternatively, some people lyk to relax at home and brought in the new year listening to london's Big ben if you are really lucky, u may be able to staey up really late to join in the festivities how wil you be celebrating this year?

many people make New Year's resolutions, which is a bit like a goal or a promise to doo something better in the new year, started something new or heelp other people

some good ideas for New Year's resolutions are: tidied up your bedroom more, help yor mum, dad or an adult at home more, stop biting your nails, work harder at school or eet more healthily hav you thought of a New Year's resolution yet?

Editing Challenge

1. Circle 15 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Mark 9 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 16 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Mark 2 missing exclamation marks in yellow.
5. Underline 6 incorrect verb tenses in purple.

New Year, New Start – Editing Task

New Year is a celebration where we welcome in a brand new year! We celebrate the end of a year on New Year's Eve, which is on 31st December each year. The new year begins on the 1st January at 12:00am.

The end of the year is a time to reflect on the achievements of the last year and lots of people choose to celebrate in different ways.

Not all countries celebrate New Year in the same way. Scotland have a different name for New Year – Hogmanay. It is tradition for Scottish people to visit each other's houses and takes gifts such as food and coal. Also, they sing Robert Burns' famous poem, Auld Lang Syne.

In Denmark, they celebrate New Year's very differently to us. It is customary for Danish people to collect dishes throughout the year and throw them at the front door on New Year's Eve! They believe that the more plates that are broken, the more friends you will have in the coming year!

Some people like to have a huge party with their family and friends and celebrate with fireworks. Alternatively, some people like to relax at home and bring in the new year listening to London's Big Ben. If you are really lucky, you may be able to stay up really late to join in the festivities!

How will you be celebrating this year?

Many people make New Year's resolutions, which is a bit like a goal or a promise to do something better in the new year, start something new or help other people.

Some good ideas for New Year's resolutions are: tidy up your bedroom more, help your mum, dad or an adult at home more, stop biting your nails, work harder at school or eat more healthily.

Have you thought of a New Year's resolution yet?

Editing Challenge

1. Circle 15 missing capital letters in blue.
2. Mark 9 missing full stops in red.
3. Underline 16 spelling mistakes in green.
4. Mark 2 missing exclamation marks in yellow.
5. Underline 6 incorrect verb tenses in purple.