

IT'S WORLD BOOK DAY!

How many challenges can you complete?

Look out for the 'Guess the title' competition on Dojo.

Reading in an unusual place

Take a photo of yourself reading in the most unusual or creative place you can.

OR

Build a den to read in.

Reading out loud

Video yourself reading your favourite short story/clip of your favourite story/poem and post for your teacher to see on Dojo.

OR

Video yourself explaining why a book is your favourite.

OR

Write a book review of your favourite book if you would prefer.

Dressing Up!

Dress up as a book character – you could use items you can find around your home or you may have a costume already. Take a photo and send to Dojo and if you give us permission we will post it on your class page of Dojo for all of your class to guess.

Guess the Title!

In the same way as staff have done, can you give some clues about a title of a book and take a photo? For example for 'Puss and Boots' you might take a photo of a cat next to a pair of Wellington boots or for 'The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe' you might stand with a lion teddy, next to a wardrobe wearing a witches hat. Send to pupils@ so they can be shared on the school website.

Instructions

Read a set of instructions to bake or cook something delicious!

Potato Character

Use a potato to design and make your own character. Write a short description about them. It can be a character from a book or one you've made up yourself.

World Book Day Live

Join a World Book Day LIVE event by following this link:
Events (worldbookday.com)
They are available after the day and there is an event for every age group.

Sharing a Story

Snuggle down in your onesie/under a blanket and enjoy sharing a book with someone else (yes, pets or cuddly toys count too).

Which is your Favourite?

Listen to some of the stories read by staff for World Book Day (list of links on the whole school tab of Dojo)
Which was your favourite? Why?

Word Hunt

Go on a word hunt whilst taking your daily exercise. How many words can you spot and write down on your walk?

Joke Time!

Read a joke to share with your friends! Who can find the funniest one? Send them in to Dojo so that they can be shared on class pages.
