

Commas for different purposes.

These sentences all need commas. Some need them to separate items in a list, some need them to separate clauses, some for an adverbial and some need them for clarity.

*/ Copy out each sentence and put the commas in the right places.

 Explain why the comma is needed. Some need more than one

1. As you may be aware Waterloo High has for a long time had a relationship with South Lakeland Activity Centre.
2. Activities at the centre include kayaking abseiling walking pond dipping and nature study.
3. Pass me my chocolate Grandpa.
4. For instance on Saturday we went to the News Strand to look for new handles for the kitchen cabinets.
5. Because we were high up I thought we'd be looking down.
6. Roger who was very tired stayed up all night.
7. If you don't listen your child becomes introverted and sulky.
8. Because of the speed camera the car which was yellow and purple slowed down
9. Even so Doctor Drax was impressed.
10. Samson smiled nodded his head and then went off to talk to the others.