

Diary of a Dog

Monday

The postman knocked at the door. I barked.

I chewed the letters. Mum said I was a bad dog.

Tuesday

Mum put my new lead on and we walked to the park.

I saw some rowing boats on the lake.

Wednesday

There was snow in the night. I had fun running around the garden.

I buried my bone in the snow.

Thursday

Mum made a sign to say 'Do not feed the dog'. The design was funny.

She drew me gnawing on a knuckle bone.

Friday

The workmen were in the road. Their pneumatic drill was noisy.

I was frightened.

Saturday

Dad bought mum a present. It was a cheery gnome for the garden.

Sunday

Some people came to our house for roast dinner.

Today was the best day because I was given lots of love and mum said I was a good dog.

Questions

1. What does a postman do?

2. What happened on Tuesday?

3. What word tells us how the dog is chewing the bone?

4. Where do you think they would put the sign?

5. Why do you think the workmen were in the road?

6. Describe a garden gnome.

